

HEMPWOOD®

GAZETTE

BIG CHANGES!

We have big news! As HempWood progresses as a company, we have decided to add a brand ambassador to our team. Considering that this person has an eye for interior design and is known for their experience within the building industry, we feel this is the perfect fit!

We hope that this person will be able to showcase the natural beauty of HempWood through trending interior design applications. Additionally, this professional will be able to relate to the homemakers of America - moms.

Follow up on our social media in the upcoming weeks as we introduce the new addition!

SOCAL TURNERS EVENT

Interested in woodturning and in the Southern California area? You may be interested in attending the SoCal Turners Expo in Anaheim, CA. The event takes place on February 19 and 20th at the Anaheim Marriott. With over 24,000 ft² of event space, SoCal is "the premier West Coast gathering for bowl turners, pen makers, resin casters, and more!" For more information, go to socalturnersexpo.com

NEW TEST RESULTS

The temperatures aren't the only thing that is low! Recent testing proved that HempWood Natural Flooring is below the limit of quantitation, which means the VOCs emissions are below 0.008 ppm! By using a soy-based adhesive, we are able to offer our customers hardwood that is good for both themselves and their families. For more information, email our sales team at sales@hempwood.com.

FAST COMPANY

HempWood was recently featured in the Fast Company article, "A new building in France makes the case for hemp to replace concrete." The article discusses the use of hemp-based building materials and its advantage. The article even mentioned our plans to "expand into outdoor decking, waterproof flooring and structural lumber." For the full article, go to fastcompany.com.
